ATH and Amper Clear CFIUS Review

ATH's counsel has received notification that in respect of the notified transaction for ATH's acquisition of Amper SA's interests in the eLandia International Inc (Bluesky Group) and the consequent change of control that the Committee of Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS) has completed its review of the transaction under the Defense Production Act 1950, (as amended).

The CFIUS notice states that "Based on its review and investigation, after full consideration of all relevant national security factors, including the factors enumerated in subsection (f) of section 721, CFIUS has determined that there are no unresolved national security concerns. Action under section 721 is concluded with respect to this transaction"

The conclusion of the CFIUS review therefore completes all the necessary regulatory approvals for ATH and Amper to complete the Bluesky acquisition.
